

Scotland's Garden & Landscape Heritage

Falkland Garden Study Day

Map of Falkland and the Estate painted by (and ©) Frances Crichton Stuart

Lectures by

- Marietta Crichton Stuart, trustee, estate and family historian and archivist, on evolution and change - the story of Falkland Estate's gardens and landscape from 1820 to the present
- Susan Thores, Head Gardener, on the Palace garden from Percy Cane's re-design c1947 onwards
- Peter Burman, Chairman of the Falkland Stewardship Trust, on how John Ruskin's ideas about gardening and stewardship are interpreted at Falkland

Landscape and garden walks led by Peter Burman and Susan Thores

Saturday 14 September 2019, 10.00 a.m.

Venue: Meet at The Stables, Falkland Estate, Falkland, Fife, KY15 7AF

As parking space is limited, car-sharing is encouraged

Members £25 / Non-members £30

Cost includes lectures, guided walks, lunch and tea

Book online at www.sggh.org. Deadline for bookings: Friday 6th September 2019